

Practise the passive voice

Look at the rules and examples:

<https://www.ego4u.com/en/cram-up/grammar/passive>

Then, do the exercises:

<https://www.ego4u.com/en/cram-up/grammar/passive/exercises>

<https://www.ego4u.com/en/cram-up/grammar/passive/exercises?02>

Extra exercises:

<https://www.ego4u.com/en/cram-up/grammar/passive/exercises?simple-present>

<https://www.ego4u.com/en/cram-up/grammar/passive/exercises?simple-past>

The diagram is set against a yellow background and is divided into two main sections: 'ACTIVE VOICE' on the left and 'PASSIVE VOICE' on the right.

ACTIVE VOICE: At the top left, a red box contains the text 'ACTIVE VOICE'. Below it is an illustration of three angry-looking penguins. Underneath the illustration, the sentence 'Wild penguins attacked my sister.' is written. The words 'attacked' and 'my sister' are highlighted in red boxes. Below 'attacked' is a white box labeled 'action', and below 'my sister' is a white box labeled 'subject'.

PASSIVE VOICE: At the top right, a green box contains the text 'PASSIVE VOICE'. Below it is an illustration of a girl with a large 'X' on her face, looking distressed, with blue teardrops around her head. Underneath the illustration, the sentence 'My sister was attacked by wild penguins.' is written. The words 'My sister' and 'was attacked' are highlighted in green boxes. Below 'My sister' is a white box labeled 'subject', and below 'was attacked' is a white box labeled 'action'.